

Please read the following important terms and conditions before you submit your Membership Application

These terms set out our respective legal rights and responsibilities in respect of your application for membership of UKFT. By making an application for membership you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.

1. The annual turnover of your business will determine your Membership Category and Subscription Fee. The Membership Application form sets out the Subscription Fee payable when you join UKFT. The Subscription Fee and any other fees are payable in advance by each member either by cheque, bank transfer, debit/credit card or direct debit agreement. Direct debits are collected on the 20th of each month, or the nearest working day thereafter.
2. On joining you will be charged for a full years membership. Your first years membership will run for 12 calendar months from the date of joining. In your second year of membership you will be charged a pro-rata amount to cover the remainder of the year. From your third year onwards membership will run for a full calendar year.
3. UKFT reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, to refuse any membership application or rescind membership. In the event that a membership application is refused, any Subscription Fee paid will be refunded to the applicant within 30 days. In the event that membership is rescinded no refund will be given.
4. Notice that you do not want to renew your membership must be in writing to UKFT or email to info@ukft.org providing not less than one full calendar payment month's notice. Cancelling your direct debit instruction directly at your Bank or a verbal instruction to any employee of UKFT is not sufficient to cancel your membership.
5. If your Bank fails to make a direct debit payment from your account when due UKFT will write or email to advise you of this. An administration fee of £15 may be charged for each failed direct debit payment.
6. Proof of postage requesting cancellation, hand delivered letters countersigned/photocopied by a UKFT employee or e-mail are the only criteria accepted as confirmation of cancellation in the event of a dispute.
7. A member who terminates their membership will have no claim to any refund of their charge(s). A member whose membership is terminated will forfeit all the privileges of membership without any refund.
8. Membership is personal to the Member (whether you be a limited company, sole trader or other entity) and may not be assigned, transferred, sold on or otherwise dealt.
9. Subscription fees and other fees are reviewed periodically and may be varied by UKFT upon not less than 28 days notice to Members.
10. Subscription fees paid in advance cannot be refunded under any circumstances.
11. The list of Members' Benefits is indicative of the services offered by UKFT it is not intended to be binding on the parties and it may be varied from time to time by UKFT without notice.
12. Membership of UKFT does not guarantee access to the Members' Benefits some of which may be subject to availability and/or a further fee.
13. Whilst UKFT uses its best endeavors to ensure the accuracy of information and material supplied to Members on the UKFT website and at events, no warranty is given about the accuracy of such information and material.
14. You warrant that you are applying for membership of UKFT in the course of your business.
15. Neither UKFT nor any of its Associate Members shall be liable in respect of any information or advice given to Members.
16. UKFT reserves the right to vary these Terms & Conditions on not less than 28 days notice to Members. Notice of any variation will be validly given to members if posted on the UKFT website or is given in writing to Members.
17. These Terms & Conditions as varied from time to time are deemed to be accepted and binding by persons applying for membership and continue to be accepted and binding for any Member
18. United Kingdom law will apply to this contract.
